Chairman and Managing Director,
Havells India Limited

My mother always says 'khao mann bhata, pehno jag bhata'. Eat what appeals to you and dress the way it appeals to others. Dressing well is about carrying the right attitude; it's about comfort and style, not just the latest trends. Dressing sense and style can speak louder than words about a person's attitude, behaviour and other personality traits. Personally, I am conservative in my clothing, and it has evolved with age. People may say that age is just a number, but I try and dress age- and occasion-appropriate.
